

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

Exactly what benefit does the public gain by allowing even less competition in the cable industry? This would seem to be simply a case of pandering to corporate ineterests. Please do your job and regulate industry, not robber stamp their wishes!!!
